Back to work with confidence

With the uncertainty of COVID – 19, many business owners may be concerned about how to deal with employment matters such as:

- Return employees to work confidently
- Managing sickness /self-isolation
- Managing objections to returning to the workplace
- Best practise management of staff who are home-working
- Furloughing advice
- Restructuring due to reduced demand
- Risk assessments
- Well-being support
- Working from home policy
- Pandemic / Business Continuity policy

PrivilegeHR is advising many businesses on these types of issues.
